NEW GENERATION RESIDENCY 2022: Call for applications

Every two years Junges Ensemble Stuttgart hosts the festival SCHÖNE AUSSICHT/Bright View: a showcase of ground-breaking international theatre for young audiences worldwide in Stuttgart as well as a platform for regional theatres working in this field, to share their work and develop their artistic and communicatory practise. 11 international performances, 7 shows from the region of south-west Germany as well as an international co-production by the festival host Junges Ensemble Stuttgart will form the artistic festival programme. Talks with theatre professionals from different continents and other exchange formats fulfil the festival euphoria.

NEW GENERATION RESIDENCY 2022

We invite 10 people (18-35 years) to participate in the NEW GENERATION RESIDENCY 2022. The scholarships address young artists of the performing arts (dramaturgs, directors, actors, puppeteers, dancers, performers, stage and costume designers, musicians or theatre educationalists) with specific interest in theatre for young audiences.

The New Generation residents will partake in the whole festival programme, watch different performances, reflect and discuss what they have seen, share questions and thoughts on the theatre for young audiences with established theatre makers, experience a week full intense discussions, delicious food, excursions and fluttering celebrations.

What's part of the scholarship?

Tickets for the performances in the festival, accommodation during the festival (shared rooms in a hostel), food at the festival centre, partial subsidy for travel expenses (max. 100€ p.p.) and coordination and coaching by an experienced theatre maker. The working language will be English.
